MAN, WIFE AND DAUGHTER PUT TO DEATH WITH CLUB

Tragedy in Michigan Home May Have Been Caused By Two Escaped Lunatics.

DOWAGIAC, Mich., Sept. 21.—The only clew today to the murder of three members of a family was a finger print and a nail-studded club. William Monroe, his wife, Mary, and their daughter, Neva, 17, were found in bed with their skulls crushed.

Archie, 12, another daughter, was found probably fatally injured. Her face had been beaten beyond recognition and her skull fractured.

Grace McKee, daughter of a neighbor and playmate of the Monroe children, made the discovery. Ralph Gillette, brother of Mrs. Monroe, found Monroe and his wife dead in their bed, their faces crushed.

In another room the lifeless 17-year-old Neva was found, her face crushed.

In the corner of the room occupied by Neva was found a nail-studded club, with heavy spikes in it. On the white bedspread was found the other clew, a bloody finger print.

COTE BLANCHE IS FOUND TO BE ISLAND OF SALT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—Cote Blanche, an island on the south Louisiana coast, has been found to be virtually an island of salt according to information reaching here. The island is one of a series of several containing valuable salt deposits and including Avery's site of the world's largest salt mine.

Cote Blanche is owned by Donelson Caffery, New Orleans lawyer, and the heirs of J. M. Burguierre, wealthy planter. Local geologists claim that the discovery proves a century old contention that the chain of islands was formed by the expansion of vast saline deposits. The Avery's island store was discovered by accident during the civil war.

In recent years both oil and gas have been sought on the insular chain, among the episodes being expenditure of a million dollars by John N. Gates, upon a mine which accidentally was tunneled into the sea and drowned out.

'THE REFEREE' TO SHOW ON SCREEN

Oakland's boxing fans will soon have the opportunity of seeing on the screen a fight story that carries considerable local interest. It was written by Gerald Beaumont, who was for several years the third man in the ring at the old West Oakland club and at the Piedmont Pavilion. While serving in that capacity and also as sporting editor of The TRIBUNE, Beaumont learned many inside angles to the Queensberry sport. One of these is portrayed in "The Referee," published recently in the Red Book, and now being prepared for the screen by Ralph Ince. Conway Tearle interprets the role of John McArdie, the Scotchman with a conscience. Gladys Hulette Charles Slattery, Anders Randolph and Laura Clanton are among the principals in the support.

Director Ince is an enthusiastic fight fan. In order to properly screen certain incidents in the story the pavilion and quarters of the Queensboro Athletic Club at Long Island City were leased for three days, and genuine battles staged between professionals. Frankie Ryan of Brooklyn and Gus Platts figured in the main events. The picture will be released through Selznick, and is the first of the Beaumont yarns to be screened.

Another of Beaumont's stories, "Lil' Ol' Red Stockings," a racing story published by Time's body's has been recommended by eastern editors for the O. Henry Memorial prize as the best short story of the year.

Dodd, Mead & Co. of New York City are releasing to the market on October 1 Beaumont's first book, a collection of baseball stories, under the title "Hearts and the Diamond."

State-Wide Finger Print Plan Urged

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 21.—C. S. Morrill, head of the state bureau of criminal identification and investigation, announced yesterday that all residents of California will probably be called upon in the near future to visit their respective police departments and have their finger prints taken.

"We are not working under the assumption that all men are guilty until proven otherwise," remarked Morrill, "but several foreign countries and many of the leading men in our own state have come to the conclusion that definite means of identification are extremely valuable."

"With this in view a conference will be held in Washington, D. C., on September 27 by the army and navy department, to discuss the advisability of a universal finger print system."

The head of the state bureau of criminal identification was in conference with the state board of control on the subject yesterday.

ASKS SUPPORT OF BAY BRIDGE PLAN

A new appeal for a united San Francisco support to the plan for a bridge across the bay has been sounded by Supervisor James E. Power, recently returned from Washington. This support, he said, is necessary before the War Department will give its co-operation.

"Anyone who has been in the East and observed the growth of such communities as Brooklyn," said Power, "cannot fail but realize the benefits which would accrue to the Eastbay cities with a bridge."

The Jayno plans for a bridge to connect the city and a ferry terminal there are advocated by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway company. It is estimated that the cost would be $10,000,000 and that a saving of 20 minutes each trip would be made.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau Information

An Oakland reader of The TRIBUNE writes in to the Information Bureau to enquire how to remove the stain and marks from a gas range. She explains that when she lights the gas oven water has run on the stove part until that portion of the stove has become badly stained.

To clean nickel plated objects—Dip them in a 2 per cent solution of sulphuric acid, for a second or two. Rinse in running water, and finally with a mixture of equal parts of distilled water and alcohol. Dry and polish.

To polish the nickel, use equal parts of precipitated iron carbonate and prepared chalk, or take quicksilver with chalk, 2 ounces, and mix them. When used, add a small quantity of alcohol and rub with chambray.

Rust remover for nickel—First cover the objects with grease, and in 4 or 5 days rub them with a rag soaked in ammonia. This will dissolve the rust, without attacking the nickel. If the rust resists this treatment apply a little chlorhydric acid, and immediately afterward rub with a cloth so that the nickel will not be affected. Then wash, dry well and polish.

Another reader enquires as to the date of the New York State Fair. The New York State Fair began September 12 and ran through Saturday, September 17.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature except those of legal, medical, dental, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The Bureau is open every day except Sunday, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. If answers are desired by mail stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the Bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve ask The TRIBUNE Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

AD. CLUB DINERS STATE WHY THEY LIVE IN OAKLAND

City's Residential Advantages Voiced By Boosters At Luncheon Meeting.

"Why do you like to live in Oakland?" was orally answered by members and guests of the Oakland Advertising Club at yesterday's luncheon meeting of that organization at the Hotel Oakland. The replies varied in proportion to the number of persons present, but the spirit unanimously expressed was one of satisfaction with Oakland as a place of residence.

Some of the replies were as follows:

"I like to live in Oakland because it is a real No. 1 place". "Because it is the most healthful place in the United States". "Because of its industrial and commercial supremacy". "Because I know of no better place". "Because all of my 'in-laws' live in San Francisco". "Because of the hospitality Oakland extends to her friends."

At the conclusion of this "round robin," Fred B. Reed, local realty man, gave a brisk summary of Oakland's attractions. He referred to Oakland as the young industrial giant of the Pacific, pointed out that it has a lower death rate than any other city in the country, that it is ideally situated from a commercial and from an artistic point of view, that it is backed by 100 square miles of level land and that it is 20 days nearer the markets of the Orient than its rival cities of the Atlantic seaboard.

He pointed out that Oakland is

Passengers on Liner Tell Of Samoan Uprising Plot

Passengers arriving yesterday on the liner Sonoma from Tutuila spoke of native threats and open hostility to American rule in Samoa, and said that the islands were ready to break out into open revolt at any moment. They stated that fifteen chiefs had been arrested by the authorities as ringleaders in a plot to murder the older chiefs. Samuel Ripley, said to be a native Samoan prince, was also aboard. He had not been permitted to land on Samoa soil by the authorities, as they suspected his mission to be of a political nature.

A copy of the Samoan declaration of independence as forwarded by 200 chiefs in a petition to President Harding, was received at the same time. The declaration in couched in grandiloquent terms, savoring more of an American lawyer's office than of guileless Samoa. It says in part: "We earnestly but respectfully contend that the Samoan people and the islands have never been ceded to the United States nor have they been acquired by purchase, discovery or conquest; that the matters of law as well as of justice and of right have not been granted."

"That it is impossible to believe that you intend by force to subjugate the Samoan people and take possession of their islands and establish an autocratic form of government in violation of the inherent right of our people."

Many other statistical reasons were also shown in Reed's summary of Oakland's advantages.

BANKERS JOIN IN MOVE TO ASSIST STOCK RAISERS

Meeting Held in Fresno To Speed Loan of $50,000. 000 To Indlstry.

FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 21.—Bankers and stockmen of the San Joaquin valley met at the Fresno hotel today to discuss plans for financing the livestock industry during the present period of financial stringency. The stockmen desire immediate funds so that they may not be forced to sacrifice their young stock.

An attempt will be made to negotiate a loan from a pool of $50,000,000, which has been definitely completed by Eastern and Western bankers for the assistance of banks in the cattle country. Loans are being made on a six-months' basis, but may be renewed up to thirty months.

WOMAN'S ASHES ARE SCATTERED FROM AIRPLANE

The ashes of Mrs. Mary B. Sanderson, 182 Hobart street, who died on Monday, were scattered over the Berkeley hills from an aeroplane this afternoon. Mrs. Sanderson was the wife of J. W. Sanderson and the mother of Helen B. Edith and Edward H. Sanderson. She was active in various branches of war work, holding the rank of major in one of the women's service organizations, besides being a worker in the Red Cross and Armenian relief. She also worked on behalf of woman suffrage and prohibition.

Mrs. Sanderson was 62 years of age and was a member of the First Congregational church. She was born in Illinois, but had lived in California for the last thirty years. Many years ago Mrs. Sanderson went to Turkey as a missionary. The father of former President Taft was a member of the party.

Mrs. Sanderson's son, Edward, was in the aviation service. One of her last requests was that her ashes be scattered over the Berkeley hills. The funeral services were held at the chapel of the First Congregational church, Twelfth and Clay streets.

COMPANY A WILL BE MUSTERED IN

Lieutenant L. G. Gile, who will command Company A, states that there are a few vacancies in the unit which will be filled as soon as possible. Recruits are being accepted at battery headquarters in the Odd Fellows' building. Gile is arranging a series of athletic meets, socials and other features which will supplement the military program temporarily. The athletic program is being planned so that the company will be able to be represented at the National Guard athletic meet in San Francisco on October 20.

Final plans for the reorganization of the 158th Infantry were completed at a meeting held Sunday evening at the home of David L. Harrows, president of the University of California and colonel of the 158th regiment. Those present were Hereafter, says Allan Foliot of the Southern Pacific's commissary department, the bread is to be 12 cents; coffee has dropped from 20 cents to 15, and the baked spud is 15 cents in place of 25. The new rates will be in effect on the diners and railroad restaurants.

AUSTRALIANS ARE DETAINED UNDER IMMIGRANT LAW

Passenger Declares He Will Appeal To Courts To Secure Admission.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—First effects of the new immigration laws, allowing quotas of immigrants to specified countries, were felt yesterday by passengers arriving from Australia and the South Seas on the liners Sonoma and Marana. B. J. Higgins, a passenger aboard the Marana, who arrived from Sydney, where he has large holdings, was detained at the Angel Island Immigration station because Australia's quota is declared filled by the authorities. Higgins is interested in Los Angeles real estate and made the announcement that he would appeal to the courts for his release. Though he has lived here several years, Higgins is not a citizen. Three Australian girls, passengers on the Sonoma, were also denied landing. The steamer Marana also brought to this port 23 members of the crew of the Italian bark Monte Bianco, which was burned in Mid-Pacific. The crew say that they left the vessel in a lifeboat 400 miles from land. After rowing for days they reached an uninhabited island, where they lived for 14 days on berries, fish and game. They were finally taken off by an inter-island steamer, and reached Paopae, where they were taken aboard the Marana. The Italian consul in San Francisco will take charge of the men. Considerable excitement was caused on the Marana when a ten-foot python escaped from the hold in which it was consigned to a Los Angeles motion picture studio, and came sliding into the ballroom at night. There was a general exodus and panic until the serpent was captured by members of the crew.

JUDGE SPANKS BOYS IN COURT WITH HIS SHOE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 21.—Judge E. E. Porterfield, presiding over the juvenile court, stopped a session of that court here yesterday, removed one of his low shoes and spanked four juvenile delinquents with it.

The four boys, in court for truancy from school, told the judge they would not go to school and asked him to send them to the McCune Home, the county institution for youthful offenders. The judge sent out for a suitable stick, but none could be found. He then used his shoe.

"What about school now?" he asked as he replaced the shoe. The four said they felt it was a good idea.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Disqualified from service in the public schools because they are not graduate nurses, nine members of the nursing unit of the university tendered their resignations to the board of education yesterday.

The resignations were accepted on the recommendation of Superintendent H. B. Wilson, following advice received from State Superintendent of Schools Will C. The resignations leave but nine nurses in the university unit, and these are at present barred from conducting work in classrooms of the city pending the receipt of health development certificates from Sacramento.

Plans for a new shop for the Edison school were accepted by the board and bids called for. P. H. Dam and a delegation of parents appeared before the board to ask that immediate steps be taken to improve the playground of the Hillside school.

EVELYN NESBIT BEATS SHERIFF IN RENT SUIT

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Evelyn Nesbit, a central figure in the celebrated Thaw case, forestalled city marshals who attempted to evict her today from her tea room for non-payment of rent, and then treated a large crowd of Broadway habitués, who witnessed the proceedings, to ice cream and coffee.

A dispossession warrant was issued on application of the Trebue Realty Company, controlled by the Shubert theatrical interests. When the marshals appeared the former actress begged them not to disturb patrons then eating.

While the marshals waited, Miss Nesbit, hatless and coatless, tied in a taxicab to the Shubert offices. She returned triumphant, having obtained a stay until Saturday.

GREEK KING SAYS U. S. MONEY NOT FOR WAR PURPOSE

Settlement of Recognition Question Would Determine Release of Credits.

BRUSA, Asia Minor, Sept. 21 (By the Associated Press).—King Constantine, discussing the $22,000,000 Greek credit in the United States, expressed his belief that Greece was prepared to guarantee that the money would not be spent for war purposes, if such assurance was required for the release of this credit.

In reply to a suggestion that release might depend also upon the settlement of the question of recognition, Constantine seemed to think it ought to be sufficient for the American government that the Greek parliament legalized all the obligations entered into with the United States during his son's reign. He still insisted that he never abdicated, but had merely given Alexander a mandate for the exercise of the royal prerogatives.

Asked if the army would go to Constantinople, he replied that it would be folly to take such a step, if it meant war against the allies. However, he added, the whole question appeared to be one for diplomacy to settle.

With regard to the Greek government's intention respecting the area taken by the Greek army, the king announced, but he felt that the question depended upon circumstances and future developments.

FLOWERS WILL BLOOM ALL YEAR IN CITY'S PLAZA

Awarding contracts for furnishing 22,500 tulip bulbs and 10,500 narcissus and daffodil bulbs for planting in Oakland parks next spring, the board of park directors yesterday announced that most of these bulbs are for the city hall plaza, where next year there will be something blooming all the time.

The board also agreed with the Realty Syndicate to trade a section of Joaquin Miller's land, so that the Miller park will be all in one piece. Hitherto there has been a piece of city land across the road from its park, and a patch of syndicate land in the park. The trade was even, without bonus. The city and the syndicate are now on their own sides of the road.

It was decided by the park board that this coming fall and winter there will be special "duck patrol" of guards hired to protect Oakland's feathered guests on Lake Merritt. This is to discourage itinerant hunters who last year took a shot or two at the ducks.

The board announced that the series of municipal band concerts will be ended for this year on October 9.

HOLLAND'S QUEEN MENAGED BY MOB

THE HAGUE, Sept. 21 (By The Associated Press).—Parliament was opened by Queen Wilhelmina yesterday amid scenes of disorder. A demonstration was carried out in the street before the Parliament building for the purpose of securing the release of a man named Groenendaal, imprisoned for refusing to perform military service.

Several persons who attempted to approach the royal carriage were arrested. Anti-militarist shouts were raised in the Parliament hall itself and the reading of the speech from the throne momentarily was drowned in the tumult.

John Cowper Powys Praises D'Annunzio

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—The "supreme imagination" of the age is possessed by Gabriele D'Annunzio, Italian poet and statesman, according to Dr. John Cowper Powys, English poet and philosopher, who is lecturing at the university.

"D'Annunzio's influence grips one with a fearful shock," says Dr. Powys. "His savage violence can be likened only to the passionate red of the walls of Pompeii. On the other hand we find a strange lack of humor, an absence of light and shade, such as Groenendaal played. With all this D'Annunzio is the most poetically beautiful of the present day."

Three Epochs in Woman's Life

There are three critical stages in a woman's life which leave their mark on her character. The first is the change from a care-free girl to a woman, the second motherhood, and the third is the change of life. Most of the misery which comes to women through ill health dates from one or another of these periods. But women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remedy which has been very successful in overcoming ailments which may come to them at these times. It is a natural restorative for such conditions. Nearly half a century of success entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded woman.—Advertisement.

Much Suffering Caused by Waste Products in the Blood

What Science Knows About the Matter and How It Is Best Treated.

The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is, thru the blood, that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The blood gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products—undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get in the blood.

When waste products get in the blood, nature will strive to cast them out. If your resistance is strong enough, nature will probably succeed. But if you are "low down," weak, run-down, and nervous, nature will begin to show signs of distress.

As a result, you will have that feeling of fatigue. You will lack the energy you need for the day's duties and pleasure. Minor ailments will begin to affect you—stomach, blackheads, and boils.

If the waste products are not cast out of the blood at this point, it is possible a more serious skin eruption or disease will begin to show itself. It is not infrequent for waste products to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by ridding you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

PROHIBITION LAW SCORED BY BISHOP

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 21.—Rev. Thomas F. Sallor, D.D., bishop of Tennessee and president of the National Council of the Episcopal Church, declared upon his arrival here that "prohibition as foisted on the people of the United States runs directly counter to the principles of liberty and freedom upon which America was founded."

"The constitution should not be amended without direct vote of the people," the bishop declared, "but now that prohibition is the law of the land the law must be obeyed."

Surprise Dinner Held For Security Lodge

RICHMOND, Sept. 21.—Bringing with them all the requirements for an elaborate banquet, bay district councils of the Security Benefit association surprised the local council yesterday evening. The out-of-town "duck patrol" of guards hired to protect Oakland's feathered guests on Lake Merritt. This is to discourage itinerant hunters who last year took a shot or two at the ducks.

They include the most prominent members of the Alameda County Automobile Trade association.

The show will be held in the Downtown Garage at 1227 Broadway, and will last a week, beginning next Sunday noon.

These dealers have had a remarkable new car business all spring and summer, in spite of alleged depressions and hard times in other cities of the country.

Oakland has been one of the bright spots on the automobile map of the nation.

In order to sell new automobiles, dealers all over the world must handle a great many used cars, which are traded in on the new makes as first payments.

After a strenuous summer's trade, there is an accumulation of used cars in the salesrooms of the dealers. The dealers decided to pool their resources and hold a used car show, in order to move these machines and to prepare for heavy fall business.

The Downtown Garage is being decorated and electric lights installed. The building is being renovated, and will be in readiness for the show opening on Sunday noon.

The dealer will have the pick of his used car stock on display and for sale, with experts on hand to demonstrate and explain the features. Every effort will be made to allow the public to look over the cars.

There will be some remarkable good values to be offered.

Many prospective purchasers of used automobiles have been wary of late because of the activities of "Gyp" dealers, who have no places of business and who sell motor vehicles for what they can get, and the cars are in the same poor condition they were when the dealer gets them. He does nothing to them and does not try to put them in shape to render good service.

The members of the association do place their cars in good condition and many of them are guaranteed.

It is far better to get a car from a reliable firm that stands behind its goods than to buy "right unseen," which many do when they get their cars from some "fly by night" dealer.

WHERE'S ROSIE'S OVERLAND?
Who stole "Rosie's" Overland? "Rosie" wants to know, the police would like to find out, an insurance company is interested in the missing vehicle and at least one hundred automobile dealers and salesmen would be much obliged if the culprit would telephone Lakeside 2400 and advise "Rosie" of its present whereabouts.

"Rosie" is known, is associate publisher of the Radiator, advertising manager for a number of motor car concerns and publicity counselor for the Alameda County Automobile Trade Association. He signs letters and checks, "B. J. Roseenthal."

His Overland hadn't been run long enough to wear off the varnish smell. Some thief looked it over yesterday while it was parked in front of the Pacific building, and decided he liked the new model just as well as "Rosie" does. He made a getaway with it and from late reports today he is still going.

You who read please be on the lookout for an Overland, license number 569,939. Rosie packs a lot of weight and walking doesn't agree with him. Help him out of his misery. BEICK FACTORY MAN HERE.

E. T. Strunk, general sales manager of the Buick Motor company, has detailed A. K. McLuney to make a tour of the Pacific Coast territory with instructions to secure as much data and information as possible about the present state of business. Judging from his remarks when he arrived in Oakland, McLuney appears to be well posted. He says:

"Truthfully, I can say that no other section of the country is as prosperous or as free from business cares as California and the West. For months now I have been traveling from point to point, interviewing bankers, merchants, automobile distributors, dealers, garage owners, accessory houses and people in every other line of work, and right here in California I find conditions to be far better than anywhere else."

"In fact, out in this district the after-war slump which has had a depressing effect upon business throughout the East apparently hasn't slowed-up matters here. The farmers, the real estate men, bankers and the automobile dealers all speak optimistically and from a careful study of the business outlook in California and along the Pacific slope, I firmly believe that the present healthy demand for automobiles will continue."

"The Buick officials are anxious to keep increasing their output to the point where they can supply the wants of the motor car public. With the information secured on my extended tour throughout the entire dealers' territory, the engineers will be able to accurately gauge the speed which must be maintained to take care of the demand for cars."

During his stay in San Francisco McLuney is making his headquarters with the Howard Automobile company.

CORRECTS UNINTENDED ERROR.
An unintentional and erroneous statement was made last Sunday in the Scripps Booth company of California advertisement, which gave out the impression that this concern was still acting as California distributor of Scripps Booth automobiles.

C. M. Steves, of the Scripps Booth company of California and who is also vice president of the Durant Motor company of California, called the writer's attention to the error and asked to have it made clear that his concern had been forced to give up the distributing franchise on Scripps Booth cars because of the tremendous amount of work both Mr. Durant and himself have in shaping up affairs preparatory to erecting the Oakland Durant factory. Steves states that his firm's first selling are new, 1921 models which comprise the last of the big warehouse stock his firm had in California, but that neither Mr. Durant nor himself want to give the impression that they are still the California distributors for this line.

THE DISARMAMENT PROGRAM.

An interesting cablegram from Tokyo a few days ago conveyed the information that the Japanese government had reached the conclusion that all the vexatious questions in the Pacific should be laid on the table at the Harding conference on the limitation of armaments and freely discussed by all the nations there represented. This signified a shift of opinion from that which was represented in despatches from Japan of a few weeks ago. Until recently all the comment in official and influential non-official circles in Tokyo has been of the reservations which Japan proposed to make.

It is not improbable that the changed attitude of Tokyo is a judicious reflection of the opinions of Secretary of State Hughes expressed in his communications to the governments invited to the conference. Mr. Hughes has made preliminary suggestions of the agenda of the conference. He has submitted a tentative list of the questions which should be considered. What replies have so far been made to his program are not yet known, but the latest news from Tokyo indicates that the Japanese government has ascertained from the other foreign powers that the American idea of full and inclusive discussion has met with their approval. Tokyo has timed its announcements to show that she does not wish to be understood as standing alone for reservations.

News despatches from Washington, obviously based on statements from official sources, give a fair hint of the program the State Department has in view as a guide for the disarmament conference. A resume of all the statements that have issued from the capital, justify the assumption that the following will be among the subjects brought forward:

Siberia—Territorial integrity of Russia, the open door and equal opportunity for economic activities, the powers acting as trustees until Russia shall have recovered and set up a central, representative government.

China—Formal guarantees of the open door and equal opportunity, the territorial integrity of China and the substitution of international co-operation for the past practice of seeking monopolistic advantage and special "spheres of influence." In addition, the condition of China, politically and economically, necessitates that counsel, if not actual assistance, shall be given to China in order that she may the better effect internal administrative, fiscal and judicial reforms.

Specifically, topics in the categories named would include: Revision of the customs tariffs, so as to allow China a more equitable revenue, which, however, would involve the abolition of the likin or inland tax on the movement of commodities from one province to another; reformation of the currency, so as to have one uniform money system; the modification of the extra-territorial jurisdiction of the foreign powers in China, provided China will put into effect a modern civil and criminal code and agree to a period of transition during which time foreign jurists will either sit with the Chinese justices when foreigners are on trial or China will accept foreign judicial advisers.

Insular possessions in the Pacific—Fortifications or non fortification, commercial opportunity, insular immigration and possibly the neutralization of certain island areas, including Yap.

The subject of fortifications in the Pacific will cover, beside Yap Island, the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippines, the Ladrone, the Caroline and Marshall groups, and the islands south of the equator which are controlled by the Imperial British government or Australia and New Zealand.

It is to be noted that the statement on the agenda of the disarmament conference given out in Tokyo coincides in a general way with these suggestions of agenda gathered from official circles in Washington. Inasmuch as the Japanese foreign office statement referred to the fact that it was in receipt of a communication on this subject from the United States government, it apparently aimed to place its views publicly in harmony with those of this and the other governments.

This is an encouraging development and goes far to clear away the fears that Japan might raise obstacles to the free discussion of the most delicate problems in the Pacific area. Apparently Japan and Great Britain are prepared to go to the conference table as if the Anglo-Japanese alliance did not exist. If this proves to be the case a cause of serious apprehension as to the success of the conference will disappear.

WORK, NOT CHARITY.

President Harding has created the committee of thirty to study the unemployment problem and to devise means, if practicable, of decreasing unemployment in the United States during the coming winter. The committee will meet at the earliest practicable moment, as soon as it can assemble in Washington.

In the words of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, whose suggestion is responsible for the creation of the committee and who will preside over its conferences, the naming of members has been guided by the desire for geographical representation, with due regard for the different elements that are interested and can be helpful in the problem without special emphasis on proportional numbers. Those of experience in those industries where there is the largest degree of unemployment have been called on in larger number than those trades where there is less unemployment.

The committee will include, besides Mr. Hoover, Secretary of Labor Davis, Julius Barnes of Duluth, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation; John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, and others. Mr. Mortimer Fleishacker of San Francisco will represent California on the committee.

Undoubtedly the committee, if it works industriously and harmoniously in acquiring useful information concerning the industrial situation throughout the country, can bring considerable amelioration to the unemployment problem. Insofar as it is able to command the co operation and acquiescence in its plans of industry and of State and municipal governments, its power for good will be further increased.

But it must be understood in advance that the federal government has not designed the special committee on unemployment to dispense charity or operate soup kitchens. Its objective is to bring idle workers who want work in contact with available jobs; to bring about the creation of jobs in useful enterprises that might as well be started now as to suffer further delay.

In accordance with this general policy State and municipal governments and private industry should undertake to cooperate to the fullest practicable extent. The seasonal shut-downs of industries and construction work has always been the cause of heavy loss to the people, both employers and workers, of the United States. If an effective system could be devised for keeping the wheels of industry running as swiftly in winter as in summer the income of the nation would be increased by billions of dollars annually. The President's committee may be able to make the winter suspension a little less marked and less severely felt. If it does it will have rendered valuable public service.

A correspondent asks what is the proper thing in calling cards. It depends on how you were raised. If you were raised gently, you are safe in calling with any three face cards.

The problem of moving picture producers is to find themes that will elevate the movies without lowering the box office receipts.

A BETTER RAILROAD OUTLOOK.

That there is really a better outlook for the railroad, is evidenced in solid fashion by the fact that their August revenues are now reported as near a round $70,000,000 for Class I lines. This is a good deal better than had been predicted and represents a genuine gain—the combined result of slight reductions in wages, curtailment of unnecessary personnel and better management.

But the grain of the roads has not passed unnoticed. There is evidently some intent in certain quarters to use the so-called "unemployment conference" in Washington as the occasion for another drive against the carriers. "Public works" are all very well as a means of raising funds, but it is much easier to believe the railroads into taking on men who are not needed than it is to devise useless public enterprises, get them into working order and raise the cash to pay for them. It is to be expected that there will be effort on the part of some to force the roads back into the morass of extravagance from which they are slowly emerging.

Even if there should be no success in this effort to drive the carriers into fresh extravagance, there is ground for the expectation that they are to have a hard time in actually getting back to normal conditions in spite of their apparently increasing prosperity. The fact is that the gains that have been made are the result of ruthless cutting of outlays for maintenance and extension. They cannot be kept up indefinitely unless the roads are to atrophy and the shippers to suffer. Already there is warning from far-sighted students of the situation that a sudden boom of coal and other lines of business would find the roads as inadequately prepared to meet it as they were in the autumn and winter of 1919-1920, when the well known congestion of freight tied business up for weeks at a time.

There is need of a good deal broader railroad policy than is now being pursued. Success on the part of carriers is taken as a reason for assaulting them and government ownership proposals are a still better reason for government ownership proposals. As a consequence there is a hand-to-mouth situation in public and private railroad management and an inability or indisposition to do more than look to the immediate future. This augurs badly for the later industrial development of the United States. While, therefore, there is ground for self-congratulation because of the improved position of the roads, it is well not to regard it as much more than a temporary phase of the situation and in some respects not an altogether satisfactory one, since there are but too many reasons for thinking that the savings now announced have been at the cost of natural and much needed development.—New York Journal of Commerce.

NOTES and COMMENT

The influence of films is seen in the instance of a 16-year-old Iowa girl running away from home because her mother whipped her. The castigation was administered because the girl refused to do away with pictures of Fatty Arbuckle which she had accumulated, that obese performer having been her favorite in the films. She had not been disillusioned by the Virginia Rappe incident.

Sacramento girls are not necessarily on record against the bloomer movement, though two hundred of them at the High school object to an edict of the present physical culture teacher which stipulates black bloomers. The former teacher prescribed blue bloomers, and the protest is rather against the rapid change as to color than against the bloomer per se.

Wanted by reliable party, furnished or unfurnished horse for the winter or longer. Phone 42 after 1 p. m. (Want ad Pendleton East Oregonian.) Signs that the country is returning to stable conditions—Medford Mail-Tribune.

War news from the King City Rustler: "We are still on a war basis. When dinner is ready the whole family volunteers, but when the dishes are to be washed mother has to do some drafting."

An artichoke show is about the most novel that has been proposed. Still, there is likely to be a good deal of interest in this exemplification of a considerable industry. Artichokes do their best over San Mateo way, on the ocean side of the peninsula where they grow in the ocean fogs, as all who are familiar with that part of the country can testify.

The woman's vigilance committee, probably daughters of the old stock, of San Francisco, will help in the purging and probing. It is a good sign—Portland Oregonian.

That report which somehow got abroad about the manufacture of 200 gallons of wine being permitted to every family turns out to be an April Fool sort of pleasantry. The authorities definitely state that only non-intoxicant fruit juice will be permitted. Non-intoxicant fruit juices are so lacking in the "kick" that this permission is likely to be passed up by a good many as inconsequential, irrelevant and immaterial.

It is hoped that another Mingo affair will not be staged in the Bakersfield oil region. Such an outcome is too likely to result when keeping the peace gets out of the hands of the regular constituted authorities. This appears to be a very different kind of a strike, but all the same it will be more edifying to retain authority where it is properly constituted.

In the testimony of witnesses who were at the Arbuckle party this statement appears often: "Then we had a round of drinks."—Red Bluff News.

In her effort to make Autumn days melancholy, nature is ably assisted by those who fix the price of coal—Fresno Republican.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.

Taxi service is tersely referred to in the Sacramento Union as a public nuisance that demands regulation and a source of city revenue that needs tapping. While it is unfair to allege that every taxi man is a nuisance, many of them being square, trustworthy and fulfilling a needed function, the application is nevertheless widespread.—Chico Enterprise.

The 90-day extension granted by the city council for the removing of all wooden awnings in the city having expired on September 6, the ordinance will be enforced to the letter and arrest and prosecution will follow in the event of failure to comply with the law of the city.—Marysville Appeal.

Mare Island's new wage schedule covering 48 pages has arrived at the navy yard and becomes effective September 16. While the reductions range from $3.50 to less than $1.00 a day the officers state that as a result of the cut they will be able to keep a much larger force at work during the fall and winter months than was originally intended.—Vallejo News.

A heartening symptom of the revival of business is the boom in tourism. Perhaps it could be more appropriately referred to as a renaissance of North American art. Advances from Vancouver are to the effect that the price, originally two dollars per pole, has advanced until now it ranges from fifty to a hundred and fifty dollars.—Bakersfield Californian.

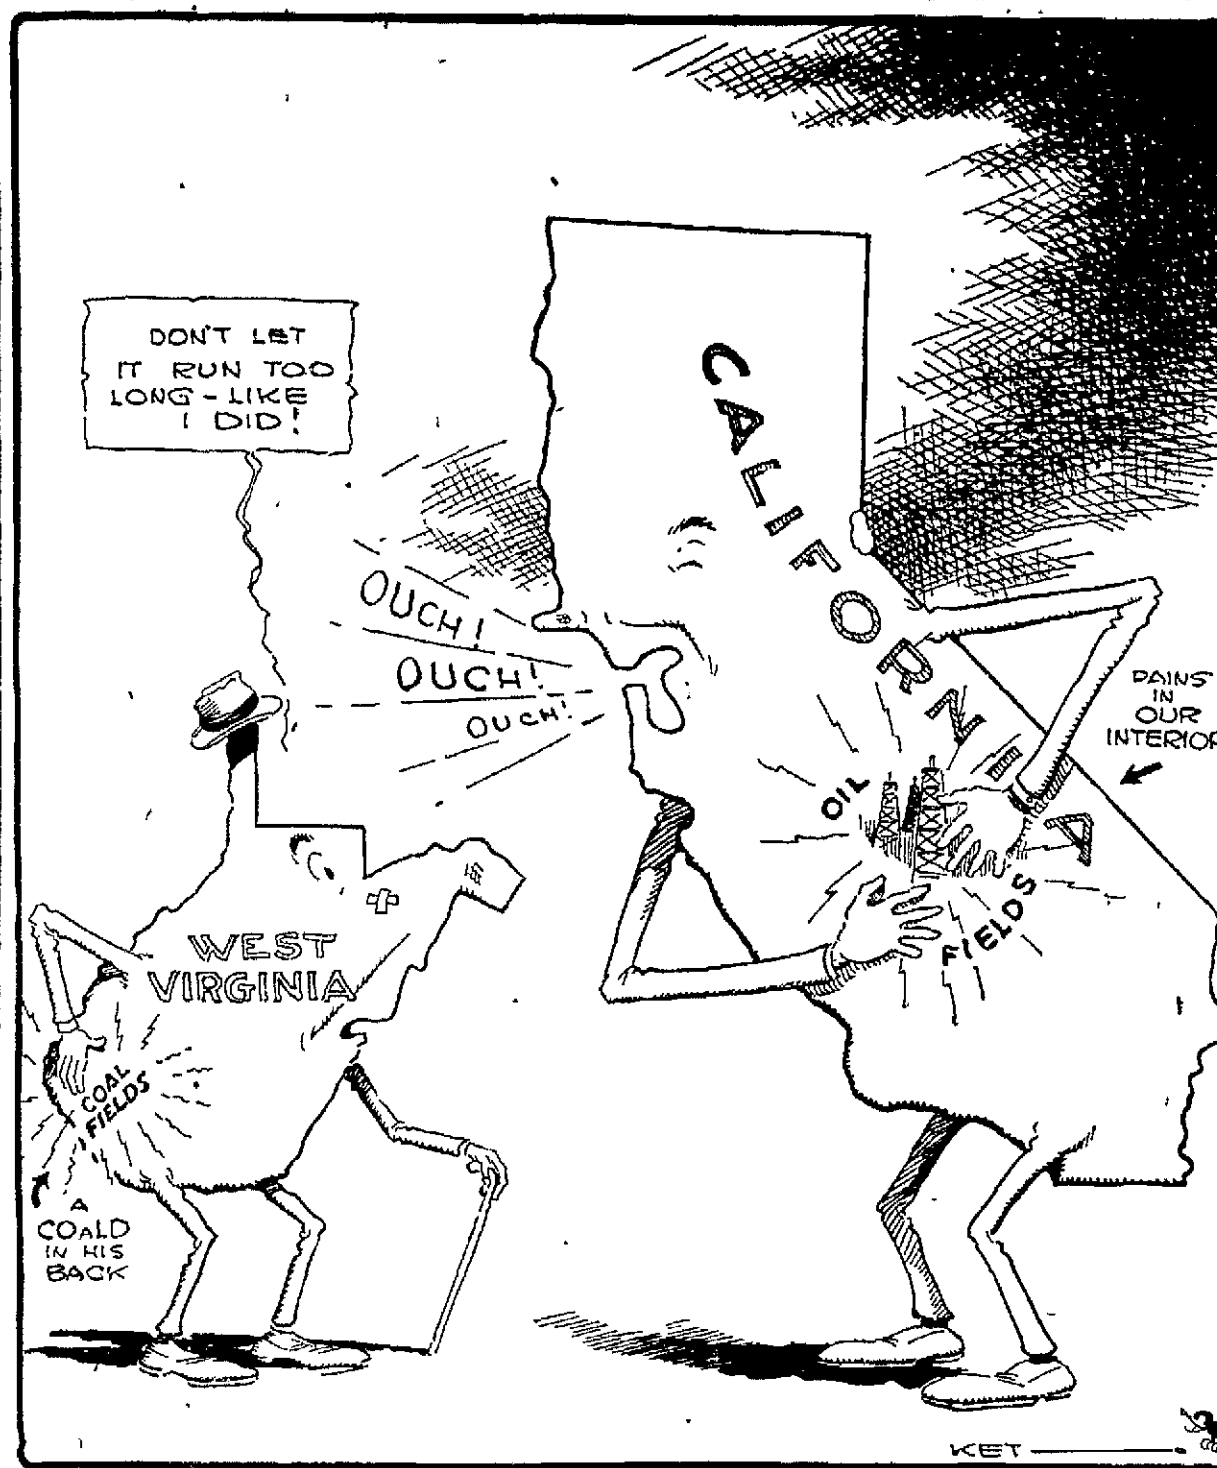

The discovery is announced of a new grove of big trees in California. A timber cruiser came upon it in Butte county. The trees are reported to be true sequoias. This news suggests that further exploration of the remote parts of this State might yield highly profitable results. Maybe there are more great gold fields yet to be discovered.—Bakersfield Californian.

Whatever may be the final outcome of the plan to again start developments in the local oil field it is gratifying to note that there are Livermore business men and farmers who are going ahead in an endeavor to get a final solution to the question which has never been satisfactorily settled—whether or not there is oil in the Livermore hills.—Livermore Herald.

No fees will hereafter be collected by Building Inspector W. J. Rowles for the erection of garages, outhouses or improvements that will not reach a cost of $500, according to an ordinance adopted by the city trustees at its regular meeting Tuesday night.—San Leandro Reporter.

It's a very small caliber person who does not know how to manage a telephone company better than those who have been in the business all their lives.—Fairfield Enterprise.

ANOTHER SYMPTOM OF STATE GOVERNMENT BANKRUPTCY.

ICEBERGS

Coast guard cutters have been scouting the North Atlantic all summer so passengers and crews of ships sailing in northern seas may sleep without fear that an iceberg will creep up on them in the night. "Those floating white castles of the North with their fantastic glimmer and threatening, death-dealing portent sometimes wander down to latitude 33 degrees—as far south as such sunny climes as Lisbon in Portugal, or the shores of Delaware Bay," says a bulletin of the National Geographic Society, from its Washington, D. C. headquarters.

"The icebergs which are to be seen during the early spring months in the Atlantic are great frozen fresh water glacier-ends which have broken loose from the ice fields of Greenland and floated with the current into warmer seas. They 'herd' quite often off the coast of Newfoundland, the warm waters of the northwestern coast of Europe keep them back on that side as far north as 70 degrees. There are few of them also in the North Pacific except near northeastern Asia.

"Gorgeously tricked out in white that gleams and sparkles in the sunlight, these monster palaces push out from the great sheet of ice that covers Greenland. No architectural feat of the ancient Egyptians or of the Byzantines, or of a Sir Christopher Wren, can compare with the Karakums and hundreds of other temples which are carved in their sides by the agents of erosion. No marble possesses the rainbow-tints of their columns, and no man-made edifice has so fairylike, capricious and bizarre a character. The whole gamut of blues and greens plays hide and seek over their surface, and sometimes in summer little cascades tumble over the sides to hide themselves in the waves. But their ghostlike emptiness and the chill of their breath make mariners shiver with dread.

"Most of the icebergs of the North Atlantic are pushed out from the west coast of Greenland between Disco Bay and Smith Sound or from the east coast south of 68 degrees latitude. Some of them are as much as 445 feet above the surface of the water, this being about one-sixth or one-seventh of their volume.

"As they sail away they necessarily start with some of the debris which was originally in the bottom of the glacier. Much of this immediately falls to the bottom of the ocean, having melted its way out. Often they capsize or flip over on one side when the breaking or melting shifts their centers of gravity. The debris, when it is on the top, suddenly plows its way through the iceberg, having absorbed more of the heat of the sun than the ice does. When it is on the side it soon slides into the ocean. At any rate the debris seldom stays with the berg far on its journey. Nothing seems to mar the purity of the icebergs' exterior. They support little life, a minute worm and the simple microscopic algae, which gives a red color to seaweed, being the only inhabitants.

JUST FOLKS.

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE EVENING WELCOME

There's a certain thrill of pleasure in a battle fought and won, And it's good to hear men cheering for some splendid thing you've done, There is real satisfaction when a business deal you've made, And there's pride and joy in counting up the profit that it paid; But the thrill that goes the deepest and is laden with delight, Is the welcome of your own folks when you're getting home at night.

Out beyond the home is laughter of a certain sort, I know, And it's good to have the friendship of the men who come and go; It is good to win their praises and it's fine to have them cheer.

About YOUR HEALTH

What Science Knows About the Strange Pellagra

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D. Commissioner of Health, New York City.

It is never safe to eat spoiled food of any sort. If there is a single doubt in your mind as to the soundness of an article of food, don't take the chance of poisoning or illness by eating it.

Our grandmothers had an unfailing talent in the way of detecting spoiled food. I have known women who seemed actually to be able to smell rancid butter a block away.

When I hear of poisoning by spoiled olives, for instance, I am always more or less amazed, because there is an unmistakable odor to the bad fruit. No one should attempt to cook who has not a good nose. An acute sense of smell is essential to cooking good food.

Fortunately, most cases of food poisoning, uncomfortable as they may be, are not serious as regards life. Most of them are transient in their effects and all the symptoms pass off within a few days.

There is at least one chronic and serious disturbance probably due to contaminated food. This is called "pellagra," a disease believed to be due to eating spoiled corn, usually cornmeal bread. While the exact cause and method of transmission are still matters of investigation, the consensus of opinion is that pellagra is caused by food poisoning. In any event, the particular food responsible is corn.

Pellagra makes its attack against three important portions of the anatomy, the stomach and the bowels, the nervous system and the skin.

The digestive symptoms are usually met early in the disease. There is loss of taste and feeling of heat in the mouth. The membranes lining the mouth may peel off. This results in a raw and painful surface. Naturally it hurts to eat or to chew the food.

The patient feels sick at his stomach. He has no desire for food and may even vomit.

The bowels become loose. The diarrhoea is painful and the stool may show blood. Sometimes attacks of diarrhoea may be followed by constipation. The bowels are always wrong, taking turns between constipation and diarrhoea.

The nervous symptoms are conspicuous. The mind shows depression, loss of temper, sadness, fear, loss of memory, uncertainty lack of ambition and stupidity. The head swims and aches. The mental depression increases. The victim imagines sounds and sights which do not exist. He becomes demented and may attempt suicide. Slight paralysis or loss of sensation may occur.

The skin acts as if it were unburned. There are well defined spots or swellings and redness. The backs of the hands and feet and the face may be involved. The skin gets dark after awhile. It is thick and rough, to begin with, and later becomes thin and dry.

This disease is more frequently met in Europe than it is here. Of late, however, it has become quite common in the Southern States. It may appear at any age and while it is confined to the poor of Europe, it attacks all classes in this country.

Pellagra is a serious disease. Even though it may not prove fatal, complete recovery is delayed in many cases.

Rest, good food, different surroundings and fresh air are important. Various remedies are prescribed by the doctors.

Like all diseases due to poor food or insanitary surroundings, it is more important to guard against infection than it is to seek a cure afterwards.

WHAT A COLLEGE MAN KNOWS.

The Review of Reviews canvassed undergraduate knowledge of current events by sending questions to 1,500 students, and found that the correct answers averaged only 44 per cent. The conclusion was that the college man, and woman, does not know much about the world today.

One student replied that Lloyd George was King of Ireland, another that Samuel Gompers was a poet, another than Charles W. Hughes was Woodrow Wilson's private secretary, etc. The investigators came to a dismayed conclusion.

They might not be quite so dismayed if they reflected that the collegian is not without a sense of humor; and that he does not risk his degree on the questions he answers for outside canvassers who want to prove his intelligence. The reply that Lloyd George was King of Ireland lacked something in seriousness. We'd guess that the boy's name was Ryan. College men frequently receive these probes in the attic with levity. They have some fun in joshing the investigators, and do not care whether they register the college masses as illiterate or not.

In spite of this drawback to the effectiveness of the questioning we are quite willing to concede the probability that the college student is not as much in touch with the world as he might be to his own advantage and to the advantage of the country. The factors involved make that probable, and middle-aged men who recollect their own academic interests remember that their chief involvement, in college days, with the outside world was found in the sporting and dramatic columns of the newspapers.—Chicago Tribune.

ECONOMICS.

Mary had a little lamb, And tea, and pumpkin pie, And got a check for sixty cents, And thought it sort of high. And so she hunted all about, For a place to eat such a dinner. For all the food that Mary ate, Was just enough to keep her. Sometimes these cheaper places are about as good as any. They give us all the grub we need, And save us many a penny.

the situation into my own hands to clear things up." Colonel Forbes is quoted in eastern despatches. "The facts are, I found the medical division under Dr. Emerson in a chaotic condition. He has 85,000 cases waiting action and was losing ground every day. Of course, there are no plumbers or policemen replacing medical men and it is too bad Emerson lost his head and his manners."

Colonel Forbes said that whenever he finds the soldiers are not getting the proper training, that he has no hesitancy in cancelling the contract with the hospital, and that he has cancelled many in this state. When he returns to Washington, he said, he will recommend the establishment of a great vocational center in this section.

RED WILLIAMS TAKES DECISION FROM BATTLING LARSON

FAVORITES ADVANCE ANOTHER ROUND IN NATIONAL AMATEUR GOLF TOURNEY AT ST. LO

GEORGE GIBBONS IS BEATEN BY JOHNSON IN THE FIRST ROUND

Lee Mazon Disqualified; Jack Davis Takes Bad Beating and Fight Is Stopped.

By BOB SHAND.

It listened like another Armistice Day in old Pinole at midnight last night when six machines loaded to the running boards with enthusiastic Contra Costa citizens hit the first crater at the end of Main street and volplaned through the town. Occupying the cushions was the elite of Rodeo sportdom and riding in the first car was Mister Red Williams, alias Rodeo Red, the most successful box-fighter that ever tried to catch bass at the Rodeo wharf. Red spent twelve minutes of a profitable evening at the local auditorium throwing left hands into one Battling Larson's good looks and mixing up this form of attack with some right-hand rips to the pantry that reminded the Battler that he had eaten a hearty dinner. On the strength of what both boys had accomplished against Henry Borba, the customers looked for an even fight, but Williams had such an edge that there was no complaint from the San Leandro delegation who rooted hard for Larson.

Larson had a cut mouth at the finish and Williams had a black eye, otherwise both lads were in their usual good health and there was no occasion to call an ambulance. They started off on low grade, moved into second in the third round, and finished in high. Larson tried hard enough all the way, but the Rodeo Red simply beat him to the punch. George Gibbons, representative in a new set of purple trunks and shiny Broom-taught, tough mannerisms, was stopped by Floyd Johnson in the first round. Poor George took a couple on the chin and one in the stomach and landed on Queer street. He was all cut and wondering why he ever quit the shipyards when the referee stepped into the picture and awarded the battle to Mr. Johnson. Gibbons was wide open for the finisher when the thing was stopped, as his senses were badly scrambled. Johnson has had sixty battles and had Allok Greggains in his corner. Gibbons has had six fights and had Harold Broom in his corner. That tells the story.

Jack Davis Should Quit Boxing Game.

Jack Davis took a man's size beating from Joe Herrera and the bout was stopped in the fourth round when Davis was bleeding profusely from two cuts over his right eye. Jack is a nice kid, a big favorite with the fans and he comes from a good family—but if he has any real friends, they will tell him to quit the boxing game. He is too nice a lad to get hammered into dizziness. True, Davis has won four of his last seven bouts on knockouts, but he steps into so many punches while trying to land his knockout wallop that evil effects are liable to result. Jack should take a look at some of the tough boys who were bears for punishment. They are dizzy everyone of them. Davis has shown no ill-effects of the many beatings he has taken, but he can't go on forever letting his jaw be a target for young huskies, and the right play for him is to quit while he is normal.

Herrera hit Davis with everything in the book last night, while all Jack had was a long, swinging left which landed but twice. Herrera hit him

Indians Drop Down Again; Yanks Lead

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The fight between the New York and Cleveland teams for possession of first place in the American league found the easterners in front today. A four-point margin represented their advantage.

Cleveland's dislodgement from first place came when the Boston Red Sox yesterday attacked two of the world's champions pitchers in an eight-inning batting rally for six runs and victory while the Yankees were winning from the Detroit Tigers.

The Homing Pigeon

The Oakland Merchants' Handicap flown by pigeons from the lofts of the Pacific Homing Pigeon club, was won by "Melrose Boy," owned by J. T. McCarry, "Meady Edmurest" from the loft of A. W. Asvitt was second. H. F. Vining of Alameda took third money with his "Air Queen."

The race was scheduled to fly on Sunday, but on account of rain storms on the north the birds were held over until yesterday. The race was flown from Kennett, the course being 200 miles afloat from this city.

Sunday, September 25, will be the last race of the 1921 bird series, and will be flown over the regular 200-mile course. This will be the first Futurity race the club has held, and as there are only ten entries allowed to each loft some keen competition will be in store for the local enthusiasts in this event.

Coffroth Planning To Reopen Tijuana Track

Nov. 24 For 100 Days

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 21.—Following the receipt of a telegram from President James W. Coffroth of the Lower California Jockey club, who is in Mexico City, C. A. Hutchison, the club's secretary here, announced that the Coffroth organization would operate the Tijuana race meet this coming season. The meeting will be opened November 24 and will be for 100 days or more.

Coffroth was called to Mexico City a month ago in the controversy regarding the ownership and operation of the Tijuana racing plant. It is reported by Secretary Hutchison that an important decision in Coffroth's favor was given in Mexico City ten days ago, but whether this is the final decision of the Supreme Court of Mexico is not known here.

Danny Edwards Wins

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 21.—Danny Edwards of Oakland, Calif., easily won the decision over George Adams of Illinois here last night. They are featherweights. Eddie Pinkman, former lightweight champion of the club, fought in improved form, got the call over Johnny Jordan of Anacortes, Wash. Eddie Moore, Seattle, was given the decision over Kid Martin of the Philippine Islands. They are bantams.

Exhaustion, Not Skill, Defeated Bill Johnston

Skill of Tilden Not Responsible For Defeat of Western Tennis Star.

From the east coast comes word that William M. "Bill" Johnston, California's greatest tennis star, and declared by experts in the tennis world to be the most consistent player who was ever a member of the American Davis Cup team, will be through as a tennis player in a short time unless he plays less strenuously and not so often. Information received here points out that it was not skill that vanquished "Bill" Johnston, but the apparent freshness of Tilden, who slipped out of several matches, and the exhaustion of Johnston, who played every match because he loved the game.

Physicians who examined Johnston the day of his match with Tilden declared he would have to forego several championship tournaments for the time being. He weighed only 112 pounds when he lost the National Singles title.

Johnston will appear October 2nd at the Berkeley Tennis Club against J. O. Anderson in the matches between California and the Australian Davis Cup team.

Morris Coming Back

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 21.—Earl Morris, heavyweight of "the old school," has been signed to meet either Billy Mike or Fred Fulton here on October 3. It was announced today. Morris' manager was in Omaha this week. The fight, it was said, will be under their auspices of the Nonpareil Athletic Club. A report that Mike Gibbons will fight a St. Paul battler here on October 6 has not been fully confirmed.

'Y' Runners Win Honors Despite P. A. A. Ruling

Oakland Entries Were Not Allowed To Compete As Team; Win Anyway.

Because of a ruling of the Pacific Amateur Association, under whose auspices the seventeenth annual Dippee Marathon was run, the Oakland Y. M. C. A. entries were not permitted to compete as a team, but running as individuals, "unattached," the "Y" distance men made as good a showing, if not better, than the entries competing as teams. Even the Humboldt high school lads of San Francisco were allowed to run as a team and were highly recognized and awarded the team prize.

In the final results the efforts and the places of the Oakland "Y" entries stick out like a black eye. R. M. Butterfield, placed second in the long grind, trailing a few seconds after 1. Quinn, the winner.

Three Oakland entries from the Y. M. C. A. captured second honors, with Billy Churchill, the veteran Olympic club marathoner taking first. He was tied for second place with Butterfield in the time prizes, but as his handicap is not as great he was awarded the place. The time for both was 55 minutes flat. Percy Gilborn finished in fourth place in the time prizes, strapping the distance in 57 minutes and 48 seconds. Harry Becker placed eighth in 56 minutes and 22 seconds.

More Oakland runners finished in the first eight time prizes than any other organization, yet they were not accorded the right to team honors. The first six places in the long grind were taken by runners running unattached.

SAVAGE TIRES

HISTORY OF THE RED MAN SERIES

THE ONE-WAY TRAIL

BY "INDIAN" MILLER

There is an old Indian trail that leads up and down, and up and down, that they call the old Apache trail. Many Indians traveled that trail, and it was the cause of many wars; and the white bones that lay along it were pleasing to the eye of the buzzard.

Proud warriors of different tribes would meet on that trail; and neither party would step aside for the other to pass. There was no courtesy in their intercourse.

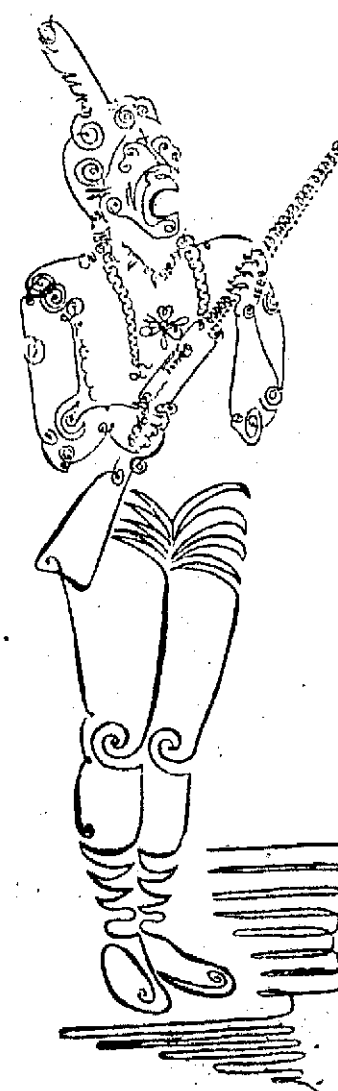

One would shout, "Get off the trail, dog of the desert!" and in a moment there would be a deadly fight. The vanquished would feed the buzzards, leaving bleached bones upon the trail. So white became the most pleasing color to the eye of the buzzard.

Then the wise men of various tribes held a powwow and made a treaty. By its terms the trail could only be traveled in one direction, so that all went in the same way on it and all meetings were thereby avoided. That is the way the wise men cheated the buzzards, which are deceived to this day by the white rocks along the trail.

The white men have now built a road on parts of the old Apache trail; and they have built it on the wisdom of the wise men of the Indians, for it is merely two trails side by side, leading in opposite directions, and each is a trail of one way. They always travel on the side next to the right hand.

There are no more wars on the trails; but the trails still hold the challenge. It is not a challenge to the foot or to the hoof—it is a challenge to the tire, and the weakest is left to the buzzard. The best alone can answer the challenge, and prominent among them is the Savage Cord. On the rocky trails of the mountains; on the smooth pavements of the cities; on the heated roads of the sandy desert; over the mud and stones of the land of forests; and over the broad highways of the plains, has this wonderful tire been tried and not found wanting. It is Built to Excel.

Here's How $50,000 Southern Pacific Depot Is to Look

Latest plans for Southern Pacific station at Fourteenth and Franklin. The upper picture shows the front of the stucco and plaster building that is to take the place of the present shack. The lower picture shows a ground plan of the structure.

S. P. Submits Its
Plans for 14th,
Franklin Station

One-Story Stucco and Plaster Building to Replace Present Shack.

A one-story stucco and plaster building which, while it will appear small on the large Southern Pacific lot in the center of Oakland, will loom large beside the present structure that is doing duty as a station. It is provided for in plans submitted to the city council by the railroad company. They are the third plans that have been published but, at present, would seem to be the ones most likely to be carried out. With the filing of the plans the railroad company, in a way, announces its decision to build the $50,000 structure ordered by the railroad commission and shows its intention to spend no more than the commission requires. As a way of escape the company announces that the plans are filed under protest, and that they are not to be taken as meaning any surrender of the many contentions which the Southern Pacific holds regarding its rights in the matter. Among other things, the railroad holds that the commis- sion is without power to direct it to build a structure, that the structure is not needed, and that the present station is adequate.

SUED TO BECOME MEMORY.
City Attorney Leon Gray believes that with the filing of the latest plans the long struggle to secure something approaching a suitable structure at Fourteenth and Frank- lin is ended. It is probable, he in- timates, that the order to start work to carry out the specifications will be made within a year, and that the shed now serving will have be- come a memory.

A plan of private capital to build an office building with station track on the colony's site, the Southern Pacific refused to lease the structure for 99 years for station purposes. The railroad held that it could not even guarantee that there would be railroads in 99 years, and that it was possible that transpor- tation by that time would be in the air. The second plans brought out were those filed some months ago with the council and met with objection because they did not contemplate a structure to cost the minimum price of $50,000. After City Attorney Leon Gray called the railroad commis- sion's attention to the fact that a very small and cheap building could be erected on the plans as submitted, the commission directed that new plans be filed. The new plans are those now on hand, plans, which, according to William F. Harris of the railroad, call for the expenditure of the full $50,000.

LIKE DISTORTED GLASS.
The new Southern Pacific station will be a one-story plaster and stucco building, shaped somewhat like a fat and distorted cross. The frontage of the building will be 60 feet over all, but the actual frontage, excluding where the wings jut out, is 35.5 feet. The actual side measurement is 34.5 feet, but in- cluding rearward portions the side along Franklin street will total 47 feet.

To the tracks, which curve away from the front of the building, there will be a grand entrance, build of steel and glass to protect passen- gers from rain. This marquee will be almost triangular in shape, to fol- low the contour of the tracks.

Between the two sets of tracks, which will be laid out differently than at present, there will be two long umbrella sheds.

SEATS FOR PASSENGERS.
The entrance to the building, a wide series of doorways leading from the track area, brings the passenger into the waiting room, the main room in the building. This space will be floored with tile and will re- ceive its light from skylights. The ceiling will be plaster. The com- fort of the passengers while waiting for trains will be cared for by a triple row of stationary seats.

To the west of this main room is the ladies' rest room, finished in tile floors, oak wainscoting and plaster walls and ceilings. To the east of the main room is the men's wait- ing room, finished in the same man- ner. Except for a telephone booth, these three rooms comprise the sta- tion.

According to a communication re- cently sent to the railroad commis- sion by Attorney William F. Harris of the Southern Pacific, "no con- tractor would try to build this sta- tion for less than $50,000."

ALAMEDA ORDERS
10 PER CENT CUT
IN CITY SALARIES

City Tax Is Fixed At $1.94 For Year, Reduction of 30 Cents Over Last.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 21.—With the statement that the move was a cold blooded business proposition in which sentiment had no abiding place, the city council last night passed the 1921-22 tax rate of $1.94, and at the same time put into effect a ten per cent reduction in municipal salaries.

The salary cut was made in the face of a petition containing the names of approximately every mem- ber of the police and fire departments and over the signatures of more than a thousand property owners who asked that that part of the budget cut be reconsidered. The new rate of $1.94 on the $100 is a cut of thirty cents over the rate of last year. Through this new rate the city will realize $586,103.

Major C. E. Tilden, who moved the adoption of the tax rate, stated: "In voting for this rate I want it dis- tinctly understood that this reduction in salary made by the council is not directed toward either the police or fire department, but affects the entire municipal department. It is simply a move to gradually reduce the tax rate of the city of Alameda. The reduction of taxes is the big issue considering it as a cold blooded busi- ness proposition in which sentiment can play no part."

PROTEST MEETING.
The police and firemen, who were the only protestants as a department, were represented by W. H. L. Hynes, former district attorney. He made an appeal for a reconsideration, stat- ing that despite the government fig- ures the living expenses had not come down, and that the salaries of the men of the two departments were the last ones that should be cut.

Following the meeting of the council, the men of the two depart- ments held an indignation meeting in the entrance to the hall and after voting their thanks to the people of Alameda who signed their petitions, detailed several of their members to see if there was any possibility of yet checking the reduction.

Man Is Blackjacked,
$100 and Ring Taken

ALAMEDA, Sept. 21.—Louis Lam- bert, 2044 Encinal avenue, was blackjacked late last night as he was taking a shortcut across the Haigst school yard, and relieved of $100 in cash and a diamond ring. Lambert stated to the police that he did not see or hear the man who struck him. He was found unconscious by George Anderson, 2018 Santa Clara avenue. The robber, after knocking Lambert out, took the money from his wallet and threw the purse onto a nearby lawn where it was recov- ered by the police.

HOLY ROLLERS
WRECK DREAMS OF LODI MAN

LODI, Sept. 21.—Asserting vehemently that the Pentecostal church members, also known as the Holy Rollers, made so much noise that he was unable to sleep o' nights, C. Stewart appeared before the city trustees and asked that steps be taken to stop the nightly noise which, he declared, was like unto the beating of tin pans on the streets. He further declared its proximity to his prop- erty prevented the sale of his home. He was told the constitu- tion of the United States gave realman the right to worship as he deemed fit. City Attorney G. M. Steele, however, advised him to see the district attorney. Stew- art said he would.

West Hungary Is Declared Republic

VIENNA, Sept. 21.—Stephen Friedrich, former Hungarian pre- mier, arrived at Oedenburg, Burgen- land, on Monday and proclaimed West Hungary a republic. It is de- clared by newspapers here. Burgen- land was recently in the hands of insurgent Hungarian bands, but they were believed to have withdrawn for the most part as a result of repre- sentations by allied authorities. As- sertion is made here, however, that these bands have been constantly re- infused until their numbers are now nearly 30,000 in number, and it is said these men are so well armed and equipped that it is doubtful if Hun- garian regular soldiers would be able to cope with them.

Military forces commanded by Friedrich are reported to be assemb- ling at Steinhing and belief is expressed here that the Carlists and the Legitimists have joined issue over the Burgenland question.

Injunction in Yolo
Water Fight Denied

WOODLAND, Sept. 21.—Superior Judge W. A. Anderson has continued for 60 days the suit of B. F. Con- away, owner of 22,000 acres of Yolo county land, against 32 rice growers and other irrigators of the Willow Slough district. Conaway sought an injunction restraining the rice grow- ers from permitting water to flow into Willow Slough and then into the plaintiffs' land.

The court refused to issue an in- junction at this time and held the plaintiff by filing of the action had afforded the defendants no time to provide for other disposal of water.

1000 DELEGATES OF M. E. CHURCH ATTEND MEETING

Sixty-ninth Annual State Conference Being Held at San Jose.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.
SAN JOSE, Sept. 21.—With close to 1000 delegates present, thronging the auditorium of the First Methodist church here tonight with hundreds of San Joseans, the sixty-ninth session of the California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened in this city last night.

The opening was most auspicious and presaged what is looked forward to be the most successful conference in the history of the church.

The sessions will continue every afternoon and evening up to and including next Monday, with a strenuous program of events to hold the attention of the delegates throughout that time.

Speakers of national reputation are listed on the program of the conference.

Bishop Adna W. Leonard will preside at all sessions.

RECEPTION IS HELD.
The meeting of the First Methodist church last night was in the form of a reception by local church people and city officials to the bishop and the conference delegates.

City Manager C. B. Goodwin delivered the address of welcome to the visiting churchmen and his remarks were greeted with enthusiasm.

The "keys of the city" were placed in the hands of the delegates and the manager wished them every success in their convention.

"We feel a distinct honor to have you with us as our guests," said Goodwin. "Without the influence of the church no city in the world could thrive. We are proud of ourselves that this is a community of churches and schools and we know that the work you take up in the convention opening here tonight is paramount in importance to all other works."

BISHOP CHIEF SPEAKER.
Bishop Leonard, presiding, next introduced State Director Herbert C. Jones, who added further greeting to the delegates. The bishop himself was the principal speaker of the evening.

After a singing service led by Professor Jeffers, the noted churchman, the bishop, in a few eloquent words, the aims and aspirations of the 69th conference. He praised the following churchmen for the work carried out in the past year and forecast the "greatest single year of service for the Master in the history of the church" for the year beginning with the conference here.

This morning the actual conference program got under way at 8:30 o'clock at the Methodist church with a single but impressive communion service in which all of the delegates took part. Organization of the conference followed and the convention resolved itself into a body for the holding of a memorial service in honor of the deceased members of the church.

SIX MEN HONORED.
Rev. A. B. Gilbert presided and following the singing of a hymn the meeting was opened by a prayer by E. H. White. The scripture lesson was handled by Rev. Gilbert, following which the lives of six great men in the history of the Methodist church were eulogized by six speakers.

The six so signally honored were John D. Hammond, D. W. Calfee, William Augustin, Dr. A. L. Jones, E. H. White and W. G. Sawyer. Their lives were dwelt upon by W. S. Matthews, E. R. Willis, Gilbert R. Dille, J. U. Sommon, C. E. Irons and J. J. Morris, respectively. Mrs. M. J. Jackson followed with an appropriate solo.

The memory of Mrs. F. W. Lloyd, Mrs. F. L. Buttle, Mrs. F. P. Louch, Mrs. J. W. Buxton, Mrs. Wesley Peck and Mrs. J. K. Jones, all deceased, were also eulogized. The late Bishop Mariman, C. J. Harris and William Seelye Lewis were also eulogized and the lessons of their lives brought out.

Conference sessions were to be resumed at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

J. J. Hill's Son in
L. A. Divorce Court

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—Asking a divorce on the ground of desertion, the case of Dorothy Barrows Hill, wife of Walter J. Hill, son of the late J. J. Hill, empire builder and president of the Great Northern railway, is scheduled for trial before Judge Thomas O. Toland in the Superior Court tomorrow.

The present action follows the dismissal of a similar suit in Paul, where the Hill's formerly lived.

Several years ago a property settlement was effected between the couple and provisions made for the support and education of their 13-year-old daughter, Dorothy. Although the amount divided has not been made public, it is said to approximate $1,000,000.

Rotarians To Discuss
Boys' Work Program

The Boys' Work Committee of the Rotary club will have charge of tomorrow's luncheon at the Hotel Oakland. The meeting will be devoted to the Boy Scout organization. Abe Leach, president of the Oakland Council of the Boy Scouts of America and president of the Kiwanis club, will be the principal speaker. Elsie Scott Herbert Wise, son of Judge Wise, will represent the Scouts and will give a three-minute talk. The flag will be accompanied by a guard of honor.

The dominant note of the meeting will be the spirit of boyhood and the talks of the speakers will be along the lines of manhood in the making.

YOU'LL GET RID OF BLACKHEADS SURE

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly with the sponge and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the parts unaffected.

Many a woman who has blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores, and after they become hard, the calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads and the pores are left clean and in their natural condition. Anyone troubled with blackheads should try this simple method.—Advertisement.

NEW BUILDING PERMITS TOTAL HALF MILLION

Close to a half million dollars in building permits, issued in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda today, indicate the resumption of construction activity in the Eastbay. The largest single item is that of the H. C. Capwell company to the building to be erected on Broadway where the Kinema theater has stood. The permit calls for a $200,000 structure and does not include certain of the finishing costs.

In Berkeley, Garrett Owen, merchant, will erect near the Alcatraz station on Adeline street, a one-story brick business block to cost $13,000. The contracts have been let and the work is to start at once.

The list of permits includes more than a dozen homes to be erected in the various cities. Eleven are to be built in Oakland, four in Alameda and two in Berkeley. There is also a permit for a ten-room flat building to be built by Mrs. Laura Montour at 765 Fifty-fifth street at a cost of $6,500. J. R. Raun will erect a $6,000 home on Lincoln avenue in Alameda.

Interesting in its estimate of downtown property values are the figures brought out in the condemnation suit to enable the city of Oakland to widen Fourteenth street between Alameda and Oak streets. Expert testimony introduced in the suit is that the improvement will increase the total value of six parcels of land by amounts ranging from $11,000 to $24,000. James McIlroy, appraiser employed by the property owners, fixed the amount that each of the six parcels of property is now worth and then named what he considered a fair price for the city to pay the owners for the fourteen-foot strip.

According to McIlroy the property owned by Catharine Merritt at Jackson and Fourteenth streets is worth $39,750 as it now stands. The Pennington property at Fourteenth and Madison is valued at $28,500 and the Noah Rogers parcel at Fourteenth and Jackson, at $39,750. The city is disputing these figures, and the result of the case is expected to determine values in the neighborhood.

McCoy, veteran Oakland composer and musician, who has been directing the rehearsals of the orchestra for some weeks, declares that the musicians are ready for one of the most attractive programs of the festival. Alexander Saslovsky, who for more than twenty years presided as concert master of the New York Symphony Orchestra, will be concert master.

The last act of McCoy's opera, "Egypt," adapted from the book by Charles F. Flinn, will be presented. Charles Mulott will sing the part of Antony and Catherine McCoy Retallack will sing Cleopatra.

Cickets for the Bohemian Club program and for the matinee performance of school children on Saturday afternoon have been placed on sale at various Berkeley stores, including Hupper and Reed's, Varsity Candy Store and the Co-op, on the campus, as well as the Chamber of Commerce headquarters and Sherman & Clay's in Oakland.

Man Hurt in Crash
Sues For $52,274

William B. Atterbury today filed suit for $52,274 damages for personal injuries against the Peerless Stage Company and August Wallenberg, charging them jointly with blame for an accident in which he was permanently crippled.

Atterbury was formerly a traveling representative for the Hudson Motor Car Company of Chicago, with a salary of $6,000 a year, he says.

Atterbury's complaint sets forth that he boarded a Peerless stage driven by Richard Blacow at Hayward on August 19, 1921. As the stage reached the intersection August Wallenberg drove his auto onto the highway and struck the stage.

Wallenberg, the stage striking the stage, was caught under a seat and crushed fracture of the right thigh, which later necessitated amputation of the leg, a dislocation of the right shoulder and fracture of the right forearm, in which the bones protruded from the flesh.

WOMAN ON TRIAL FOR MURDER TO GIVE TESTIMONY

Husband Slaying Case Not To Go To Jury Until Friday.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 21.—Mary Vuyach, fighting for her life in the superior court here during her trial on a charge of having murdered her husband, Stephen Vuyach, with Nicola Jaramas, her lover, will not hear her fate today as had been predicted at the opening of the trial.

The case will not be in the hands of the twelve jurors, indications were this afternoon before late tomorrow and possibly not until Friday morning.

This morning the prosecution had not concluded its case and witnesses were still being examined and cross-examined by the attorneys.

The relentless cross-examination by Attorney William R. Blagat, representing Mrs. Vuyach, yesterday dragged the taking of testimony over hours of time. This morning Blagat was again subjecting all witnesses to the same minute cross-examination.

Mrs. Vuyach, who was to have taken the stand yesterday according to all expectations, had not reached the witness stand early today but attorneys expressed the belief that she could be the stand sometime before tonight. A tense drama is expected to be enacted when she tells her life story to the jury.

Arguments can scarcely get under way before tomorrow, it was stated today. Upon the length of time taken in the arguments depends when the case of the alleged murderers will go to the jury.

This morning the attorneys continued their examination of Peter Parrish, landscape gardener of Stanford university and a star witness for the prosecution.

Parrish, in the first testimony which he gave yesterday afternoon, declared that Mrs. Vuyach confessed to her at his home in Palo Alto that she had aided Nicola Jaramas in the slaying of Steve Vuyach.

He declared he had been with her when she went to dig up her murdered husband's clothes from their hiding place in the Francisco creek, after which Mrs. Vuyach was arrested.

The confession of Mrs. Vuyach, guardian over the unfortunate Mrs. Vuyach and has done everything to brighten the days of the accused murderers.

Monday morning when the time came for Mrs. Vuyach to go to trial she was without any appearing clothes. She felt the fact loudly and then it was that her cellmate came to her rescue.

Removing her own fine clothing, Mrs. Edwards soon had attired Mrs. Vuyach in her silk black dress and the other articles of wearing apparel it being said that the loaned wardrobe even extended to silk undergarments.

But that wasn't all. Today Mrs. Vuyach appeared in court with her hair dressed in the latest and most approved style, the result of the care and interest of Mrs. Edwards.

Last night, says the county jail matron, Mrs. Edwards cut in papers and this morning she spent a half-hour in putting on the finishing touches of her half-dressing scheme. Both women were immensely pleased with the outcome.

Mrs. Edwards begged today to be allowed to go into the courtroom with the accused Mary Vuyach, just to be with her because she needs a friend, but Sheriff George W. Lyle, realizing the law, was forced to deny the plea.

Woman Prisoner "Dolls Up" Cellmate in Finery

SAN JOSE, Sept. 21.—A little side story of heart interest, in which two women accused of felonious figure as the principals, grew out of the trial for murder of Mrs. Mary Vuyach, here today.

The accused murderers, whose financial state was very much on the ebb since her incarceration following the slaying of her husband, has appeared in court during the trial attired in an expensive black silk dress, stockings, a valuable fur coat and a neat black hat, covered by a silk veil.

As a result those who have known the story of Mary Vuyach and the story of her family's destitution, have marveled at her neat and almost extravagant appearance as she has faced the jury that is to decide her fate.

HEIRS' EXPLANATION.
Today County Jail Matron Kate Plunkett revealed the why and the wherefore of the prisoner's neatness.

Several weeks ago Hilda Edwards, a young woman coming with a heart ailment, but with an apparent failing for worthless checks, was arrested by the local police. A few days later she was held to answer in the superior court on a charge of uttering fictitious checks and henceforth consigned to the county jail.

There she was placed in the same cell with Mary Vuyach.

The intervening several weeks have formed a strong bond of friendship between the two accused women. Mrs. Edwards has assumed an air of guardian over the unfortunate Mrs. Vuyach and has done everything to brighten the days of the accused murderers.

Monday morning when the time came for Mrs. Vuyach to go to trial she was without any appearing clothes. She felt the fact loudly and then it was that her cellmate came to her rescue.

Jimmy's told a lie—a whopper! And Jimmy's mother and all his friends and even his father (the white sepulchre!) are standing around Jimmy in a grisly circle telling him of the steam heated hellhells reserved for little boys who tell lies—hells which they, of course, know of only by hearsay for they have Never Told a Lie. Never. NEVER!

"An' how do youse all know I done it?" whimpers Jimmy.

"Because a Little Bird told us!" say they in a righteous chorus. "A Little Bird told them"—and, yet

Jimmy never, never told a lie!

Now why commit all this crime and tuss when Jimmy tells a lie? In the first place, you're not fooling Jimmy. He knows perfectly well that you yourself have told him that he's taught you in heaps of them. Only the lies of other people than you, can't tower above you and tell fables about tatting birdsies. Also, why scare him with stories of small boy heils? They tell you to make him see the beauty of truth. They merely impress him with the inconvenience of being found out. This is the weakness of hell—methods of education merely impress him with a premium on the clever, post graduate courses in lying in which Jimmy concludes you must be an adept since you're never scolded for telling the truth.

Why not vary the program and tell the truth to Jimmy. There's no social sanction for such a procedure with children, but some of the more advanced spirits are trying it and it works. Put aside hypocrisy and tell Jimmy that lying is as common as dirt but Truth Telling is brave and beautiful as pirate adventures and gold discoveries and war heroes. Make him see that Truth is a valiant, exciting thing and that Lying is a crawling substitute. Then you'll tell Jimmy where his soul lives and help him more than you could with all the threatened hell. For what Reg'lar Kid ever cared a hen about scoldings for telling the truth? Incidentally, may make you a good bit fonder of truth yourself.

The writer of the following letter thought she was stating an individual problem. As a matter of fact, she was stating a problem practically EVERY wife must contend with to a greater or lesser degree.

Geraldine:

Here I am—just finishing up the work of my little apartment. As I swept my room I reflected on my married life. Oh, what a dreary ing, Sister, that the disillusionment NEED NOT MEAN FAILURE.

Many and many a man has been a dreamer, and yet his dreams have been turned into POWER through the sin of the clever wife. If he otherwise he had proved a failure. And many a dreamer has been turned into an embittered liar simply because his woman resented his innate childishness and immature attitude of life, and standing up and shielding him from shame.

years. My husband has turned out to be a ne'er-do-well—a builder of castles while we live in poverty. The first of our marriages was happy and I loved each other and he made me happy telling me of the little wonder-home that was to be ours—how he would dress me and care for me and with a proud heart I believed him to be the Only Man on earth.

Slowly each dream was shattered and now, with no love or happiness and a poverty-what-for, there is there to work and make our little home attractive? He doesn't appreciate it. I used to love to make his favorite pie, to be sleek and span in a nice, patriarchal way with my dear little as I liked it. But I guess I've lost interest, for I don't care any more.

He would rather lie to me than the most trivial way than to tell the truth. Oh, God, what a lack of Oh, for the good, true love of a man—one I could be a pal to, to love and encourage and just live for him. My husband shoves me away. I just can't seem to get to his heart no matter what path I try.

I'd get out and work, but a little baby life is entrusted to my keeping and I shall give it the most loving care I can.

I cannot know what you have done or have not done. Girls cannot know the things that may possibly have happened, and show you how you may possibly bring a way out. Won't you write me a little more fully—I do want to help you have a big idea that you need not leave home, you can stay here. Can't you just alter your attitude home? I don't think your love is dead—only embittered and denied.

Suppose you play the dream game with him, but without knowledge, lead him as a mother would lead? Do you think that you healed his sore pride he'd I quite as much? It's ever so easy to do if you think the other fellow holds you in contempt. Think about it.

And put on that starved dress again—and make that favorite pie I've a hunch they'll work if you mix 'em with wisdom.

From Three Sub-Debs

Sage dear:

The vital question which has been confronting us for the past two years has at last proved to be much for our young sub-debs. We are three young sub-debs, coming from very select, aristocratic families.

At last we have in the world of our official duties to cater to the cry that pours in from institution when the right place is with me. It would break my heart to part with her.

Does this letter sound weak? I HAVE tried and I'm just tired. I can't get money from him—he hasn't got it. The baby hasn't the proper clothing and hardly any of the necessities of life—but she is healthy and I suppose that is something to be grateful for. Well, Geraldine, I'm looking to you for a mother's advice, for mine has gone to the land of no returning.

MRS. R. B.

How to Face Poverty

Girl, I'm not going to understate your misery. I know it's constant and bitter. But I'm not going to give you a few things that may help you untangle the puzzle of it all. And in so telling, I see where Jerry makes a lotta trouble for herself and you. SEE GOING TO SUE THE FOLK FOR SELLING ON THE MEN! However, it will be an exciting thing, so let's go!

Every wife married one whom she considers The Only Man—and every wife finds something every other man lacks. Such like every other man that ever lived and is, in reality, not a tower of strength at all, but a little, clinging child where she is concerned. It's baffling, it's mad-

—Why can't you use your, common sense?" or "Use your common sense."

—Oh, Jerry, are you ready for the question? Assuming that you are—How can we have common sense when we are not "common girls?" We are,

—GOSSELORE SWEETS.

P. S.—We betcha the whole in doughnut you won't print this.

Hand over the hole, Girlies, here's your little rhyme. "Common girls" I'll say your' notti, Don't pay no 'tention to those of us, the 'pals, the 'sisters, the 'babes, the 'fegies, darlings. Here's a little scheme. All you need to do be rich for life is to buy a set bars and sit behind them and ask for 'em. That's the place for rol' without 'em. You can't and the say it's a grand-life in the monk case.

J. D.—This is a last warning against asking me questions on a quiete. Such questions can't be answered in books always available in the public library, and while I want to help everyone, there are so many questions more vital. A young lady should stand before me presenting to an elderly man. You want to introduce the man to the woman rather than the woman to the man as though it mattered a whole of lot either way.

A PAL OF JERRY'S.—Little P

THE RIGHT WAY, IT'S BEAUTIFUL FOR THE STRONGEST, MOST ENDURING INFLUENCE A WOMAN CAN HAVE. SHE DOESN'T NEED THE SWEETHEART INFLUENCE NOR THE WIFE INFLUENCE, BUT THE MOTHER INFLUENCE. THE DAY A MAN RETURNS TO HIS HOME, HIS WIFE'S KINDNESS AND HELPLESSNESS WILL REVEAL THAT DAY HE'S HERE FOR LIFE IF SHE CAN PERMIT PLAY THE GAME ARIGHT. It means sacrifice and disillusionment, and the loss of self. It means putting behind the rosy dreams and facing the long, gray stream of reality. And there never was a woman who didn't rebel against that disillusionment and that inevitable wish in her heart that her husband could be the sturdy oak and she the clinging vine. But in the end if one can "carry on," there's infinitely more joy and satisfaction in the climb up than in the life of the pampered pet. There's pride and progress, and love is all the sweeter because one has to work for it.

Now, I'm not saying that it is always possible to find success after the disillusionment, but I am say-

Women Await Films Taken In Yosemite

By EDNA B. KINARD.

To see themselves as others saw them in the Yosemite valley last May, will be seen as they move across the great stage of the meadow which caught the shadow of Glacier such shortly is to be the privilege of the clubwomen of California. For the film which was made from that wondrous spectacle of the all-day pageant of California womanhood—perhaps the most beautiful and stately albeit colorful out-of-door production that has ever been offered in this country—is about ready to release. A few of the club leaders have already caught glimpses of the reels which have been completed with titles and art work in the Los Angeles studio which is rushing the big task. They have pronounced them good. Within the month the finished work will be distributed among the federated clubs to be used as they determine best.

Mrs. Aaron Schloss of Berkeley will be in charge of the pageant film.

When the California Federation of Women's Clubs announced that one day of the summer annual convention held in the famous national park would be devoted to a pageant "California—the Land of Dreams," and participated in by the hundreds of delegates, even among the ranks were doubting Thomases.

But when the day was done and women who had never before taken part in casts wearily sought their couches, throughout the nation went sounding the word that the task was realized gloriously.

Now Yosemite and the story of woman and of her part in California history as conceived and portrayed in pantomime and dance, are being renewed perpetually. The film, stretching through several reels, which assembles the prominent women from all parts of the state, will be shown first among the federated clubs in California. From here it will be sent throughout the United States, and perchance if interest warrants, abroad, to the glorification of the womanhood of the Pacific coast.

Not the least beautiful of the symbolic episodes included in the screen story is that contributed by the local women—Mrs. Minna McGauley, Mrs. William Nat Friend, Mrs. W. E. Babson, Mrs. Elizabeth Eisenberg, Mrs. W. W. Blair and Mrs. W. A. Wishart in the major group and scores of others in the processional and dances representative of organizations scattered throughout Alameda district. It is with them, the eagerly-awaited for film opens.

Announcement of the showings which will boost club finances will be made within a few days.

The political science section, which is being organized in Oakland Center, California Civic League, will include a group of women who have put away childish things to inquire into matters and things that affect the fate of nations. No lighter a theme than European finances are to be considered when for the first time the leaders of thought assemble on Friday morning, October 14.

Robert Moody, recently returned from a tour overseas, where she gave particular attention to finances and laws in Europe which bore directly upon the welfare of children, is being claimed as the introductory speaker.

The study is not to cease here. What effects Europe automatically finds a reflex in the United States. On October 28 the section members will consider the relation there is between European and American banking systems. Mrs. Ella F. Rowell is chairman of education, under whose direction the department falls.

Mrs. Anna Saylor, assemblywoman from Berkeley, will be the guest of honor and speaker before the Business and Professional Women's club tomorrow, when the members assemble at luncheon in Hotel Harrison. During her office Mrs. Saylor has given intensive study to the water situation in California. She is familiar with the many projects which from time to time have been considered and with the Marshall plan, which finds its emphatic sponsors and objectors throughout the state.

The club has a membership of upward of 225 women of the city engaged in executive capacity in business or the professions. Mrs. Gladys Barnhill is president.

Mrs. A. S. Colton will open her Webster street home on Friday to the Eastbay students of modern drama who are associated in one of the interesting sections of the California Branch of the American Association of University Women. The college women have outlined an interesting program for the winter's reading, calling the most significant of the modern drama for their consideration. The second meeting of the Eastbay section will be held at the La Verda avenue home of Mrs. R. T. Birge on Friday, October 7.

Housing conditions of college women were considered by members of the housing committee at an important session yesterday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roy Sanders in Montecito avenue was the scene of a marriage at high noon today of Miss Helen Reed, sister of Mrs. Sanders, and John Harvey Goodman of Berkeley. Only the immediate members of the two families were guests. A wedding breakfast was served. Rev. Frank M. Easley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. The Sanders home was arranged in the wealth of fall bloom and foliage. There were no attendants upon the bride, who was a traveling gown of navy blue with hat to match. The bride and groom were in their honeymoon Goodman and his bride will occupy apartments in Grand avenue.

Banker Goes East To Economic Meet

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Convinced that the best plans toward relieving unemployment are those directed at the stimulation of industry, Mortimer Fleishhacker, banker, capitalist, and member of the Board of Regents of the University, is on his way East today to attend the special conference of economic experts called by President Harding.

"I shall be in a better position when I return from Washington to discuss the most effective plan to relieve the unemployment situation," said Fleishhacker, before boarding the train. "I will say this, however, that if business conditions are improved then also will the labor situation improve. The foreign situation is responsible for a great deal of our trouble. Everything in Europe is disoriented. Russia, Austria and middle Europe are in chaotic state."

It is Fleishhacker's opinion that the conference will be of benefit in restoring confidence and that some valuable suggestions will come out of it.

FORMER SAILOR SCRUBS FERRY TOWER CLOCK

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Pete Bellhoe, former sailor and now a butcher by profession, volunteered his services yesterday to wash the face of the ferry clock. He gave added thrills to the performance by doing stunts while climbing over the dial of the clock. Breathless crowds watched him from below as he hung head downward by a rope and made the circuit of the dial holding on by his hands alone.

Teachers Recommend Reform in Dancing

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Further needs of dancing were discussed this morning at the second session of the convention of San Francisco Dancing Teachers' Association. The convention, which opened yesterday, will be brought to a close tomorrow with the adoption of resolutions which will be sent to all dancing associations throughout the country.

The resolutions will call for the abolition of the shimmy and jazz dances and the frenzied one-steps and fox trots. These will be replaced with dances once thought obsolete, but now revived with pep and snap. The "Society Walk," "San Francisco Glide" and the "La Tosca Toddle" are some of the dances officially sanctioned by the association.
